NO ONE CAN SEE THE FUTURE

So when you put your valued belongings in storage, it's best to prepare for the worst while hoping for the best.

This facility is not responsible for your property. That's why your rental agreement requires that you have insurance for your belongings while stored. To satisfy this requirement, you do not have to purchase insurance from Xercor Insurance Services LLC ("Xercor") but may instead provide proof of other insurance, such as a homeowners' or renters' policy.

You may have duplicate coverage under an existing policy, so contact your insurance agent. Keep in mind that facility employees are not licensed producers and are not qualified or authorized to evaluate the adequacy of any insurance you may have. All questions regarding the Insurance Program can be directed to Xercor.

BE MORE THAN SURE

Coverage underwritten by: OLD REPUBLIC INSURANCE COMPANY

The insurance is provided under a Master Policy (Policy Form #XIM 00 01) issued to the facility owner or operator, administered by Xercor and underwritten by Old Republic Insurance Company. Both are respectively licensed in this state. If you participate in this insurance program, your coverage will be evidenced by a Certificate of Insurance that will be issued to you.

The owner or operator of this self-storage facility, or its affiliates, may benefit financially if you participate in the Xercor Insurance Program. Affiliates of the owner or operator of the storage facility may have an equity interest in a reinsurance company that reinsures the risk undertaken by Old Republic Insurance Company under the program.
